1. Giurgiu, the so-called "Port of Bucharest," has been practically taken over by the Soviet Army. The large buildings which were cleared by large deportations of the Rumanians are now occupied by the Soviet troops. Movement about the port is forbidden to Rumanians.
2. Near the harbor are about fifteen large barracks. These are now occupied by Soviet troops, including artillery and tanks. The Soviet troops also occupy the big Rumanian infantry barracks here. It is believed that there is about a regiment in the latter.
3. No unit identifications have as yet been obtained.
4. There are now twelve big gasoline reservoirs in the port, at the Giurgiu end of the Ploesti-Giurgiu pipe line.
